

Materials for this Lesson

Answer These

How does this process of looking for clues feel?

What has most surprised you in this lesson?

Where else could you use Anger Scene Investigation skills?

What patterns do you see in your life?

Does anything in this process create anger in you? Why?

What would you like to ask God to do for you right now?

Remember This

Exploring the roots of Anger requires investigative skills.

There are common clues to where these roots exist.

God has given us His word, His presence and His people to walk with us in this.

As we find clues, identify roots and cooperate with God to find restoration, our anger loses much of its power.

We are not powerless if we depend on God.