

Materials for this Lesson

Answer These

What are some past Expectations you now see as irrational?

What Expectations are you currently holding about your life?

Where is an example of anger that was based on your expectations? Did you recognize the expectation beforehand?

What is the craziest Expectation you remember having?

Have you ever been angry at God because of missed Expectations? What did God "owe" you?

Remember This

Expectations are beliefs about the future.

Expectations must be based on God's word and truth but often we create expectations that ignore that.

Expectations bring unnecessary Anger into our lives.

God's word warns us to manage our expectations because He knows their power.

God knows and controls the future. We must walk with Him trusting He knows our best path.