Answer These

What's the biggest temptation when you have a setback?

What does that temptation say about God's power and purpose?

What scriptures can you list where Jesus gives up on people pursuing His life within themselves?

Who do you need to share your setback with for perspective?

What will you regret if this setback becomes your normal?

Remember This

Setbacks are normal.

It's not a question of "if you will have a setback" but "when you will have a setback".

Setbacks are not fatal. Everyone has them.

We must measure progress, not perfection.

Perfectionists rarely trust God.

God loves to work with people who experience setbacks because they are more humble and aware of reality.

Setbacks are not an obstacle for those who are humble. But they are devastating to us when we are proud.
